1. (v.1-3) The king is seeking out someone to whom he wants to show ____________.

2. (v.4-5) The king seeks someone not currently a ____________ of the Promised Land.

3. (v.6) They respond in ____________ to the king calling them by name.

4. (v.7) The king’s promises are ____________.

5. (v.8) Once exiled and considered ____________, by the king’s calling and grace they are made ____________ again.

6. (v.9-10) They are brought into ____________—a real relationship—with the king.

7. (v.11) Mephibosheth is a type of ____________ who has been crippled by _____________. Through no achievement or accomplishment or goodness of his own, the king (__________) has called him in and shown favor upon him for the sake of Jonathan (__________). Mephibosheth is now treated as a _____________.

8. (v.12-13) Just as we all will some day, he now lives with the king in _____________.

2. (v.1-3) The king is seeking out someone to whom he wants to show ____________.

2. (v.4-5) The king seeks someone not currently a ____________ of the Promised Land.

3. (v.6) They respond in ____________ to the king calling them by name.

4. (v.7) The king’s promises are ____________.

5. (v.8) Once exiled and considered ____________, by the king’s calling and grace they are made ____________ again.

6. (v.9-10) They are brought into ____________—a real relationship—with the king.

7. (v.11) Mephibosheth is a type of ____________ who has been crippled by _____________. Through no achievement or accomplishment or goodness of his own, the king (__________) has called him in and shown favor upon him for the sake of Jonathan (__________). Mephibosheth is now treated as a _____________.

8. (v.12-13) Just as we all will some day, he now lives with the king in _____________.