1. (22:1-2) It began with someone wholly devoted to the Lord.

2. (22:3-7) The work first begins in God’s house.

3. (22:8-10) And the first step is a return to God’s Word.

4. (22:11-13) It is followed up with sincere repentance.

5. (22:14-20) It is often accompanied by a sincere commitment to prayer.

6. (23:1-3) There is a re-commitment to the covenant.

7. (23:4-9) The clean-up begins with the house of God.

8. (23:10-15) Then the clean-up moves to all the false spiritual practices and institutions.

9. (23:16-20) As the clean-up moves outward it touches every corner of the nation.

10. (23:21-23) The original purpose of biblical practices are restored at the end of the process.

11. (23:24-25) A commitment to God’s Word empowers the elimination of all false spiritual influences.
