1. (v.1-2) Believing in God has little benefit for those who continue to live as they did before.

2. (v.3-5) False worship is rooted in self-interest with no regard for others.

4. (v.6-12) The example of right worship:
   a. Love our neighbor as our self.
   b. Our way is prepared by the Lord.
   c. Our life is replenished and transformed. (Rom. 12:1-2)
   d. We in turn become a repairer and restorer.

5. (v.13-14) Worship is not supposed to conform to our own desires but in the spirit of self-denial seeking to honor God alone.
