

Luke 6:20-49 • The Differences That Matter

1. (v.20-26) Those grounded in _____ life know the _____ of everything but the _____ of nothing; those focused on the _____ life understand what truly has _____.
2. (v.27-31) The quality of faith is proven in how we _____. A quality faith is willing to sacrifice the _____ things of this world for the _____ things of the next.
3. (v.32-36) Loving those who hate us stems from understanding how _____ and _____ they are spiritually.
4. (v.37-40) God proves our _____ for Him in the quality of our _____ for others.
5. (v.41-45) The difference in behavior between a saint and a sinner is evidenced by their behavior toward _____ and _____.
6. (v.26-49) True Christianity is authentic to the degree it puts _____ into practice. This is nowhere more visibly evident than in the quality of personal _____.

Luke 6:20-49 • The Differences That Matter

1. (v.20-26) Those grounded in _____ life know the _____ of everything but the _____ of nothing; those focused on the _____ life understand what truly has _____.
2. (v.27-31) The quality of faith is proven in how we _____. A quality faith is willing to sacrifice the _____ things of this world for the _____ things of the next.
3. (v.32-36) Loving those who hate us stems from understanding how _____ and _____ they are spiritually.
4. (v.37-40) God proves our _____ for Him in the quality of our _____ for others.
5. (v.41-45) The difference in behavior between a saint and a sinner is evidenced by their behavior toward _____ and _____.
6. (v.26-49) True Christianity is authentic to the degree it puts _____ into practice. This is nowhere more visibly evident than in the quality of personal _____.