

Acts 8 • How to Preach the Gospel

1. (v.4-5) Regardless of our _____ responsibilities and assigned _____ duties, they never supersede our primary calling to _____ and _____ the message of the Gospel.
2. (v.6-8) Every ministry avenue has been prepared in advance by _____.
3. (v.9-13) Results come from a response to the _____.
4. (v.14-17) The preaching of the Gospel must always be followed up with the work of _____ in order to live the _____.
5. (v.18-23) There may be follow-up work to relinquish _____ hold on one's _____ and _____ going forward.
6. (v.24) There may be follow-up work to effect a complete change of _____.
7. (v.25-26) We must submit to the Lord's choosing of the _____ and _____ regardless of outward appearances.
8. (v.27-31) The minimum requirement is an audience of _____.
9. (v.32-35) A seeker's _____ often provide the best context for providing the Gospel.
10. (v.36) The Gospel is not a _____ but an _____.

Acts 8 • How to Preach the Gospel

1. (v.4-5) Regardless of our _____ responsibilities and assigned _____ duties, they never supersede our primary calling to _____ and _____ the message of the Gospel.
2. (v.6-8) Every ministry avenue has been prepared in advance by _____.
3. (v.9-13) Results come from a response to the _____.
4. (v.14-17) The preaching of the Gospel must always be followed up with the work of _____ in order to live the _____.
5. (v.18-23) There may be follow-up work to relinquish _____ hold on one's _____ and _____ going forward.
6. (v.24) There may be follow-up work to effect a complete change of _____.
7. (v.25-26) We must submit to the Lord's choosing of the _____ and _____ regardless of outward appearances.
8. (v.27-31) The minimum requirement is an audience of _____.
9. (v.32-35) A seeker's _____ often provide the best context for providing the Gospel.
10. (v.36) The Gospel is not a _____ but an _____.