

Romans 7-8:17 • The Two Natures

1. (7:1-6) We are no longer bound by the OT _____.
Therefore, we can serve in the new self through the _____ and not to the old self through the _____.
2. (7:7-12) The _____ is good and important because it is the _____ that made us aware of our _____ and, therefore, our need for _____.
3. (7:13) The Law simply notifies us that _____ is present within us.
4. (7:14-25) The ultimate culprit is not the _____ but the dilemma of living in the _____.
5. (8:1-4) If the _____ of the Law has been fulfilled in us, then all the _____ have been met.
Therefore we are free from the _____ and no longer walk according to the _____ but the _____.
6. (8:5-13) We are no longer under “an _____” to sin. We can either walk according to the _____ (continue in our same old ways) or according to the _____. Before, we never had that _____ – now we do.
7. (8:14-17) Our identity ultimately changes not to just being “_____ of God”, “fellow _____ with Christ”.

Romans 7-8:17 • The Two Natures

1. (7:1-6) We are no longer bound by the OT _____.
Therefore, we can serve in the new self through the _____ and not to the old self through the _____.
2. (7:7-12) The _____ is good and important because it is the _____ that made us aware of our _____ and, therefore, our need for _____.
3. (7:13) The Law simply notifies us that _____ is present within us.
4. (7:14-25) The ultimate culprit is not the _____ but the dilemma of living in the _____.
5. (8:1-4) If the _____ of the Law has been fulfilled in us, then all the _____ have been met.
Therefore we are free from the _____ and no longer walk according to the _____ but the _____.
6. (8:5-13) We are no longer under “an _____” to sin. We can either walk according to the _____ (continue in our same old ways) or according to the _____. Before, we never had that _____ – now we do.
7. (8:14-17) Our identity ultimately changes not to just being “_____ of God”, “fellow _____ with Christ”.