

Galatians 4 • The Law & Grace, Part 2

Learned from the Study from Galatians 3:

1. (3:1-5) The _____ argument: The proof of salvation by grace and not the Law is proved by the _____ salvation _____ itself.
2. (3:6-14) The _____ argument: No one has ever been _____ by doing the Law because no one can fully _____ the Law as proven by the _____ itself.
3. (3:15-18) The _____ argument: The _____ cannot cancel out God's covenant with Abraham. _____ and faith go together, never _____ and the Law.

This Week's Study:

4. (4:1-11) The _____ argument: The Jews were in a kind of _____ under the Law which, having run its course, prepared the way for Christ to _____.
5. (4:12-18) The _____ argument: Paul addressed them as a _____ concerned for his spiritual _____ to not allow false teaching to dissolve their personal _____.
6. (4:19-31) The _____ (or _____) argument: God promised Abraham a son long before Ishmael was born. Ishmael, like the Law, was _____ and never intended as God's final plan for Israel. Ishmael and Hagar were cast out as a teaching that _____ and grace, _____ and works, _____ and commandment can never live together in the same household.

Galatians 4 • The Law & Grace, Part 2

Learned from the Study from Galatians 3:

1. (3:1-5) The _____ argument: The proof of salvation by grace and not the Law is proved by the _____ salvation _____ itself.
2. (3:6-14) The _____ argument: No one has ever been _____ by doing the Law because no one can fully _____ the Law as proven by the _____ itself.
3. (3:15-18) The _____ argument: The _____ cannot cancel out God's covenant with Abraham. _____ and faith go together, never _____ and the Law.

This Week's Study:

4. (4:1-11) The _____ argument: The Jews were in a kind of _____ under the Law which, having run its course, prepared the way for Christ to _____.
5. (4:12-18) The _____ argument: Paul addressed them as a _____ concerned for his spiritual _____ to not allow false teaching to dissolve their personal _____.
6. (4:19-31) The _____ (or _____) argument: God promised Abraham a son long before Ishmael was born. Ishmael, like the Law, was _____ and never intended as God's final plan for Israel. Ishmael and Hagar were cast out as a teaching that _____ and grace, _____ and works, _____ and commandment can never live together in the same household.